

CAPITAL HEALTH'S Primary Care Network

Whether it's scheduling a wellness check-up or you're not feeling well, advanced medicine starts with your primary care doctor. Capital Health's Primary Care Network offers offices throughout the greater Mercer, Bucks and Burlington county region.

We currently have primary care offices in Bordentown, Browns Mills, Columbus, Ewing, Hamilton, Lawrenceville, Pennington, Princeton, Robbinsville and Trenton, NJ, as well as Langhorne, Newtown and Washington Crossing, PA to make it easier for you to stay healthy. All of our offices offer same-day appointments when you are not feeling well, and some offer evenings as well.

Now is the time to team up with one of our primary care providers to maintain and improve your health. With so many options, convenient hours and locations, make the call today to connect with one of our board certified providers and get on the path to wellness.

Capital Health Medical Group (CHMG) is a network of more than 300 healthcare practitioners including primary care and specialty care physicians and surgeons, and other practitioners, dedicated to providing high quality healthcare carefully coordinated between providers.

All CHMG offices use a shared electronic medical records system, which allows our physicians to securely access your medical records, making it convenient for you to continue your care across our network of primary and specialty care providers. Patients can also manage their health easier using our CHMG patient portal and secure video visits are available to established patients at all of our primary care and select specialty offices.
